APPROVED CONTINUING EDUCATION PROVIDERS FOR PLUMBERS, HEATING, AIR CONDITIONING, REFRIGERATION AND SHEET METAL CONTRACTORS

Plumbing, Heating, Air Conditioning, Refrigeration and Sheet Metal Contractor renewal applications, including shelved licenses, require proof of completion of one of the five-hour continuing education courses listed below. Courses are available in person and virtually and must be attended by the license holder.

All Mechanical Trade licenses expire annually on December 31st. Continuing Education requirements are biennial.

Plumbers must complete the required continuing education course by the end of every odd calendar year (i.e., 2025, 2027, 2029, etc.)

Heating, Air Conditioning, Refrigeration, and Sheet Metal Contractors must complete the required continuing education course by the end of every even calendar year (i.e., 2026, 2028, 2030, etc.)

If you hold Plumbing and Heating, Air Conditioning, Refrigeration or Sheet Metal licenses, you must complete continuing education every year.

Course Complete Certificate must be submitted with your renewal application. Failure to complete and/or submit course completion certificate will delay your license renewal or result in your license expiring.
